EVENT NAME : SAMUKTACA (FUNDRAISING AND DONATION)

DESCRIPTION : This is a fundraising event during the orientation classes of 1st years, it intends interactive sessions, fun activities and indulging them in the act of giving. In this event, we volunteers were divided into teams where each team comprises two to three members for handling the activities. The fun activities were handled by Swaroop, Gayatri and Pavan, interactive sessions were initiated by Dr.J.Hyma, Phanindra and Rishitha, creative works were handled by Anjali, the photography was in control of G.Nikhil and the collection of funds from students were handled by Gowtham and Krishna.

Not only games but also the team indulged the first year students in marking their first day as memory. A photobooth which is named as 'First day of College' was placed outside the classrooms which allowed the students to take a picture with the camera provided by us.

The fund amount which has been raised had been given to an orphanage named Gnanananda and Ramananda Ashram. Through that amount the team TWC offered fruits, vegetables and all the essentials which they needed. The speciality about team TWC is we actually speak with the management of orphanages and know their essentials, so after a brief search of all orphanages in Vizag, we got stucked to an orphanage which has the need that we can satisfy.

One of the main motives of this event is not letting the students it as a one day event but also inculcating the joy of giving in them. In regard to this, team TWC started an initiative by collecting funds and sharing happiness on student's special days which include birthdays etc.,. Funds like books, stationary and donations were given by students for the homeless children.

The Gnanananda and Ramananda Ashram is a place where they only take children who are either orphans, are neglected by their parents or whose parents are too sick to care for them. We found that they are in need of some groceries, books etc, so we decided this as the place we have to donate. We, Team TWC, always want the donors to know how wisely their funds are being used, this is the reason why we encouraged all the students and faculty to participate.

Volunteers of different years from CSE joined the event. Everyone interacted with the students and entertained them with some activities. Faculty members also joined us with a true spirit of love. Dr.J.Hyma, Ms.G.V.Gayatri and Ms.Priyanka inculcated students into drawing and taught them some morals.

Each and every child got his own talent and participated in all games. Drawing competition was conducted in a motive to encourage them and to be free with us. Everyone participated with lots of excitement and gave out good drawings. Those children also shared their lessons which were taught to them and sang some of the slokas to all of us.

Finally, through that event we felt really blessed spending the most memorable time with those kids. It is not only that they have learnt from us, but actually we have learnt from them. Their way of greeting, knowledge through studies and love which is so pure, made us all learn something through them.

EVENT NAME: Joy of Giving(FUNDRAISING AND DONATION)

DESCRIPTION: In the month of December, the most exciting festival is Christmas. On the eve of Christmas, team TWC has planned to do a clothes drive for the kids in Ramananda and Gnanananda. Because if we choose one orphanage, the needs in that orphanage should be satisfied. In the ashram we found the children having clothes not in a good condition, so through the funds we would give them new clothes.

As Christmas is incomplete without Santa Claus, this time this donation drive made out to be creative. Yes, Santa Claus is coming to town!, Santa arrived and collected the funds. All students were fascinated by watching Santa and supported for a good cause.

We also approached the faculty and explained the cause to them. All of them were so supportive and showered their love towards those kids through donations.

So, the eve of Christmas was about to bring some joy in the faces of children.

The funds collected were given to a shop where uniforms for all the children in ashram will be stitched. They only wear uniforms which are of white colour. For this process we collected the information about the uniform size of each student in that ashram, so that they would love their uniforms more when it actually suits them perfectly.

Republic Day, happy with the freedom we have and also happy to share that joy with those children. This time, HOD of CSE Dr.R.Sivaranjani madam also joined the service. Mr.Ramakrishna sir too encouraged the children and spent time with those children.

They all recognized us and were so happy to see us again. Some new games were conducted for them which made them competitive. Those who won the game also received gifts.

Then we distributed uniforms for both girls and boys according to their sizes. We were so delighted watching those kids being happy regarding their new clothes. It is nothing without the funds of the donors.

Children were also given fruits and all the volunteers and faculty departed in the evening. So, continue to love and support the team TWC.
